

TANYA HARDEE

Aspiring Interior Designer & Home Stager

Acworth, GA

813-892-8722 | NaturallyRenee1@gmail.com

Professional Summary

Creative and detail-oriented aspiring Interior Designer with an Associate of Science in Merchandising and Management and hands-on experience staging residential spaces and optimizing small-space layouts. Skilled in color coordination, furniture placement, and budget-conscious styling solutions that enhance both functionality and visual appeal. Seeking an entry-level opportunity with an interior design or home staging firm to further develop technical design skills while contributing creativity, organization, and strong work ethic to a collaborative design team.

Design & Staging Skills

- Residential Home Staging
 - Small-Space Planning & Layout Optimization
 - Color Coordination & Interior Styling
 - Furniture & Décor Placement
 - Budget-Conscious Design Solutions
 - Visual Merchandising Principles
 - Mood Board Creation (Learning Canva)
 - Detail Orientation & Team Collaboration
-

Relevant Design Experience

Freelance Home Styling & Small-Space Projects

Tampa, FL | Atlanta, GA | 2015 – Present

- Designed and staged residential spaces for family and independent clients, improving functionality, layout flow, and visual presentation.
- Developed cost-effective design solutions that enhanced room aesthetics while staying within budget.

- Selected furniture, décor, and styling elements to create cohesive and welcoming environments.
 - Successfully translated client ideas into organized, visually balanced living spaces.
 - Maintained strong organization, communication, and adaptability across multiple projects.
-

Education

Associate of Science (A.S.), Merchandising and Management

International Academy of Design & Technology — Tampa, FL

REAS Standard Member of Real Estate Staging Association of Atlanta, Georgia.

Professional Strengths

- Strong passion for interior design and staging
- Highly motivated, dependable, and eager to learn
- Creative problem-solver with attention to detail
- Collaborative team contributor
- Committed to long-term growth in the interior design field